

- Residential meter sets should not be in the rear of the dwelling unless that location is the most feasible.
- Fences/gates should be installed behind the gas meter. Whenever possible, avoid meter locations that may be fenced in at a later date.

